CONCORDIA'S BENJAMIN TOP C.F.L. PICK

NICK BENJAMIN

LANCE HARRY

GREG MILLER

ROGER MAYER

The Concordia University's Nick Benjamin was selected number one in this year's C.F.L. college draft. The 6'3, 270 lb. offensive lineman was the top choice of the Ottawa Rough Riders, last place finishers in the C.F.L. in the 1984 season.

Benjamin, a native of Trinidad, recently completed his 4th season (Sociology) at Concordia being selected an O.Q.I.F.C. All-Star, an All-Canadian and Concordia's Lineman of the Year. It marked the second consecutive season that Benjamin has been so honoured.

In addition to Benjamin, Concordia had three players chosen in this year's draft. Offensive guard, Lance Harry and linebacker, Greg Miller went in the 6th round to Hamilton and Winnipeg respectively, while defensive tackle Roger Mayer was picked in the 7th round by Saskatchewan Roughriders. Mayer, 6' - 270 lbs. from Montreal, is a 3rd year Recreation and Leisure student, while Harry, 6' - 250 lbs. - Arts and Miller, 6'2 - 215 lbs. - Sociology are in their 4th year. All three, like Benjamin were O.Q.I.F.C. All-Stars in 1984.
